

Dalton Boggs & Associates, an executive search firm that specializes in healthcare, has been retained by a large faith-based, not-for-profit, tertiary care medical center in the Southwestern suburbs of Saint Louis to find a Director of Pharmacy Services. This hospital is licensed for over 700-beds and is full service including trauma services, cardiovascular services, neurology/neurosurgery, oncology, women's services, and many others. They are a 'top 100' hospital and have won awards as one of the 'best places to work' in the St. Louis metro area. They are doing well financially and their faith-based mission is a big part of their operational culture.

St. Louis has one of the lowest costs of living in the country's top 20 major metro areas and ranks as the 2nd most affordable housing market. The region is blessed with outstanding educational institutions, from pre-kindergartens to nationally ranked universities. Family life is important and manageable commutes make spending time at home easier.

An outstanding compensation, benefit and relocation package is available.
